Castle Rock Park To Be 'Frontier'

Castle Rock Park is the setting for the Frontier Frolie barbecue the Orioles and Tanager are giving to benefit the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center on May 24. It is located on the Ford ranch in Ygnacio Valley off the North Gate Road to Mt. Diablo. In addition to the swimming pool, playground areas and barbecue facilities, the natural beauty of the park, with its stream and many beautiful old oak trees, makes this spot ideal for the evening planned for "fun for you and funds for the Therapy Center."

Anyone desiring tickets is asked to call Mrs. Berton Kohler, Orinda 8381, or Mrs. William Arends, Orinda 2481.

Morrows, Polls See White Easter At Yosemite Lodge

Rev. and Mrs. Fred R. Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Poll enjoyed a white Easter at Yosemite.

The four, traveling in the Morrows' car, left Orinda on Easter Sunday afternoon. Late that day, after their arrival at Yosemite Lodge, snow started falling and the lodge promptly placed Christmas tree lights on an outdoor tree. The snow continued all night, and the next morning found a blanket of snow outside.

Thereafter, according to Rev. Morrow, could have been "The Dreaming of a White Easter." The snow quickly melted, however. The group returned to Orinda April 15.

Man, Daughter Hurt When Truck Does a Flip-Flop

Stanley Randolph Kendall, 38, of 15 Los Altos, Orinda, and his eight-year-old daughter, Betty Lou, were injured when the Diamond K dump truck he was driving overturned on Orinda Highway a short distance north of Orinda Crossroads Sunday morning.

They were taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley, where they were released the same day. Both Kendall and his daughter, who had been with him in the truck, had received abrasions.

According to the California Highway Patrol, the truck flipped over on its top when Kendall apparently was making a right turn onto Orinda Highway, en route to Orinda Village.

The Orinda Fire Department washed spilled gasoline off the pavement.

ON SATURDAY afternoon, a station wagon driven by William J. Hampton Jr., 20, of the U. S. Navy, collided with a car driven by John Hopkins of Oakland, on Mt. Diablo Boulevard just east of the Crossroads. There were no injuries. Both vehicles were east-bound.

The Highway Patrol reported that the station wagon was owned by Seth Blakeman of Lafayette. Hampton is assigned to the U. S. S. Forest Royal.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

AT LAST WE HAVE CONFIRMED a suspicion we have entertained for quite some little time. We have had our doubts that it could be true, and we have also had our moments of hoping to goodness it wasn't true, but now we know for sure — it is true — somebody reads this column!

Yep, the Blood Bank did it — with our ever-flapping ears we eaves-dropped and heard one say to another, "The Bloodmobile will be here on May 5, we read about it in that - - - column in the Orinda Sun."

The actual Bloodmobile truck is the epitome of efficient operation. It arrives at the destination — in this case Orinda Community Church — the beds are unloaded and entire equipment for receiving and preparing blood for flight to Korea is set up. The setting up process takes about three-quarters of an hour. The packing process at 7 o'clock takes on hour and is done to perfection so that the precious blood will be safe during the trip back to Stockton. That is the reason they have to close at 7; however, anyone inside the door by that time will be taken care of.

Last week we gave you the suggested food list. Yes, there are certain rules to follow but they are only for your own protection. Blood is blood and just practically any old blood will do the trick when you are wounded on the battlefield, but the consideration of the Red Cross is all for the comfort of the donor.

For instance, no go if you have the sniffs — because you might not get over your cold quite so fast. If your hemoglobin is down when it should be up — no, no — and you get a free blood count and typing for future reference thrown in.

For the ones who are meek, or the ones from Missouri, it is possible to go just to observe to see whether or not it is something you want to go for.

If Sonny boy is too young for nursery school, take him along, because there is a sister service. The following local women will be on hand to guard your young, or if you would rather, small fry can go right along and hold your hand: Mesdames Howell Turner, Les Harlander, William Platt, Irving Grundel, James Felchlin, Donald Tibbets, and Milton Vail. Now don't go getting any ideas — this sister service is just for blood donations, and you are permitted to donate only every three months.

Then there is the phone committee: Mesdames Thomas Rodgers, Robert James, William Brock, Willard Miller, Douglas Kelly and Robert Smith. Incidentally, they will make three attempts to call you, and if you can't be reached you are on your own and can call Mrs. James Felchlin at Orinda 5711 for an appointment or, if worst comes to worst, you can just blow in. However, it is more convenient for the donor to make an appointment because it saves waiting.

WE HAVE USED A LOT OF OUR BEST gossip space for information on the Blood Bank — and it isn't because we don't have some good yarns for you — as a matter of fact, we are loaded — three alluring trips and one about a local celebrity who is being photographed by Life magazine — but you will just have to wait for next week, because it is our considered opinion that being given an opportunity to make your most constructive contribution to your country is more important.

THE LOCAL DRAMATISTS had better "look to their laurels" (we have a couple of laurels out in front but "looking to them" seems to serve no purpose — or maybe that is just the old Roman version of "Keep our hat on straight" — anyway, the Dramatists had better keep their wits about them because there is a local competitive group, fugitives from one of Lila Murphy's recent productions, who ably staged "Alice in Wonderland" for mothers — (10 cents) and brats (5 cents). Costumes and scenery all handled by the young members of the group, with an occasional assist from a mother who just couldn't contain herself any longer.

The following mademoiselles should be watched by the talent scouts: Diane Traverso, Judy Hopkins, Margie Williams, Margaret Nichols, Judy Ageno, Marty de Maeyer, Susan Snow and Judy Edelin.

HAVE YOU SMELLED THE NEW PAINT job at Orinda Country Club? Soft greyed green all over the place, and the Hill and Dale party really initiated it in fine style, as usual. The cocktail party hosts and hostesses who showed their guests out the door just in time to keep the country club chef from having hysterics also as usual were Messrs. and Mesdames C. S. Dodge, W. H. Brailsford, George Elberhardt, Joseph Lang, John Gompertz, Thomas Montague, Joseph Sheaf, Charles Gibbs, Jack Dean, Stuart Davis, Floyd Blaney and Pierce Milton.

Who is the man who is exceptionally efficient with both his head and his feet and is still running? From what we hear tell, it is most unusual for a University of California (or university of anything else, as far as that goes) student to be both a track star (Circle C for cross-country) and mental giant (Phi Beta Kappa).

Not only that, those of us who have lived in this area for five or 10 years and think we own the place should be impressed with the gentleman's three-generation background of Contra Costa living. Grandfather trundled across the plains in 1850 and landed in the beautiful San Ramon Valley. Father is still there as one of the big orchardists. After that impressive background, why is he still running?

Well, he is running for Congress from the 6th District, which is also interesting because the districts have just been reshuffled and this will be Orinda's premier in the newly created 6th.

Lindsey Spight is his general chairman for the forthcoming contest and Ritchie Smith and Kendrick Morrish are co-chairmen to see to it that the gentleman gets elected. And who is this gentleman who is out after new laurels (must investigate that laurel business and find out what it means)? Why, it is John F. Baldwin Jr., of course — a man to watch!

As we told you, the first house on the Orinda Branch house tour on May 27 will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank House.

And what an interesting house to see. The driveway carved out of the hillside goes between two oak trees which have been barricaded with redwood boxed terraces planted with trailing things. The house is on a flat promontory commanding a view of Sleepy Hollow on one side and the whole Miner Road, Camino Don Miguel, golf course and Las Espiral hillside on the other side.

All we have to say is we are glad Mrs. House has an electric dishwasher because the view is so magnificent out the kitchen window that but for that we are sure she would never be able to accomplish a thing.

In the living room, walnut panelings and handsome Chinese accessories. The house is a compact arrangement of two bedrooms and everything else that is necessary, all within easy walking distance of everything else. Snappy little bar arrangement in the kitchen to keep all that sort of thing out of the way of the other sort of thing which may be going on at the same time — kitchens being what they are.

The patio, accessible to the living room, dining room and kitchen, is dominated by a wandering oak which unfortunately became involved with a bulldozer and had to be propped up with a plank — the plank in turn is becoming involved with some variegated ivy as camouflage and will give a most charming effect.

The House of the complete command of the valley, could, if they were so inclined, spit all the way from the fifth fairway to the water tower beyond Las Vegas Road with a side-winder to the left as far as the end of Unit 2 in Sleepy Hollow. All of this is highly doubtful because the Houses are most delightful and dignified, but we will have to admit that the thought occurred to us as we stood in the beautiful patio on top of the world — and would most certainly have tried it if it wouldn't have horrified our hosts.

The front hall is not a front hall but a sun room, also walnut paneled and awash with shimmering light. The pastel colors in the bedrooms and the gay yellow in the kitchen are enhanced by soft grayed greens in the living room.

Tucked off on the bedroom side, another patio protected by a glass wall so that you can jolly well take a sun bath or a shade bath any time of day some place or other.

Completely charming, and we know you will enjoy it — that is, if you can get your tickets before they are all sold out — call any Orinda Branch member.

FIVE LITTLE BROWNIES on their way home from Brownie meeting April 3 got all mixed up, by happenstance, with a newspaper photographer and the Garden Club house tour, and ended up by having their pictures taken in the Milton Selbys' patio.

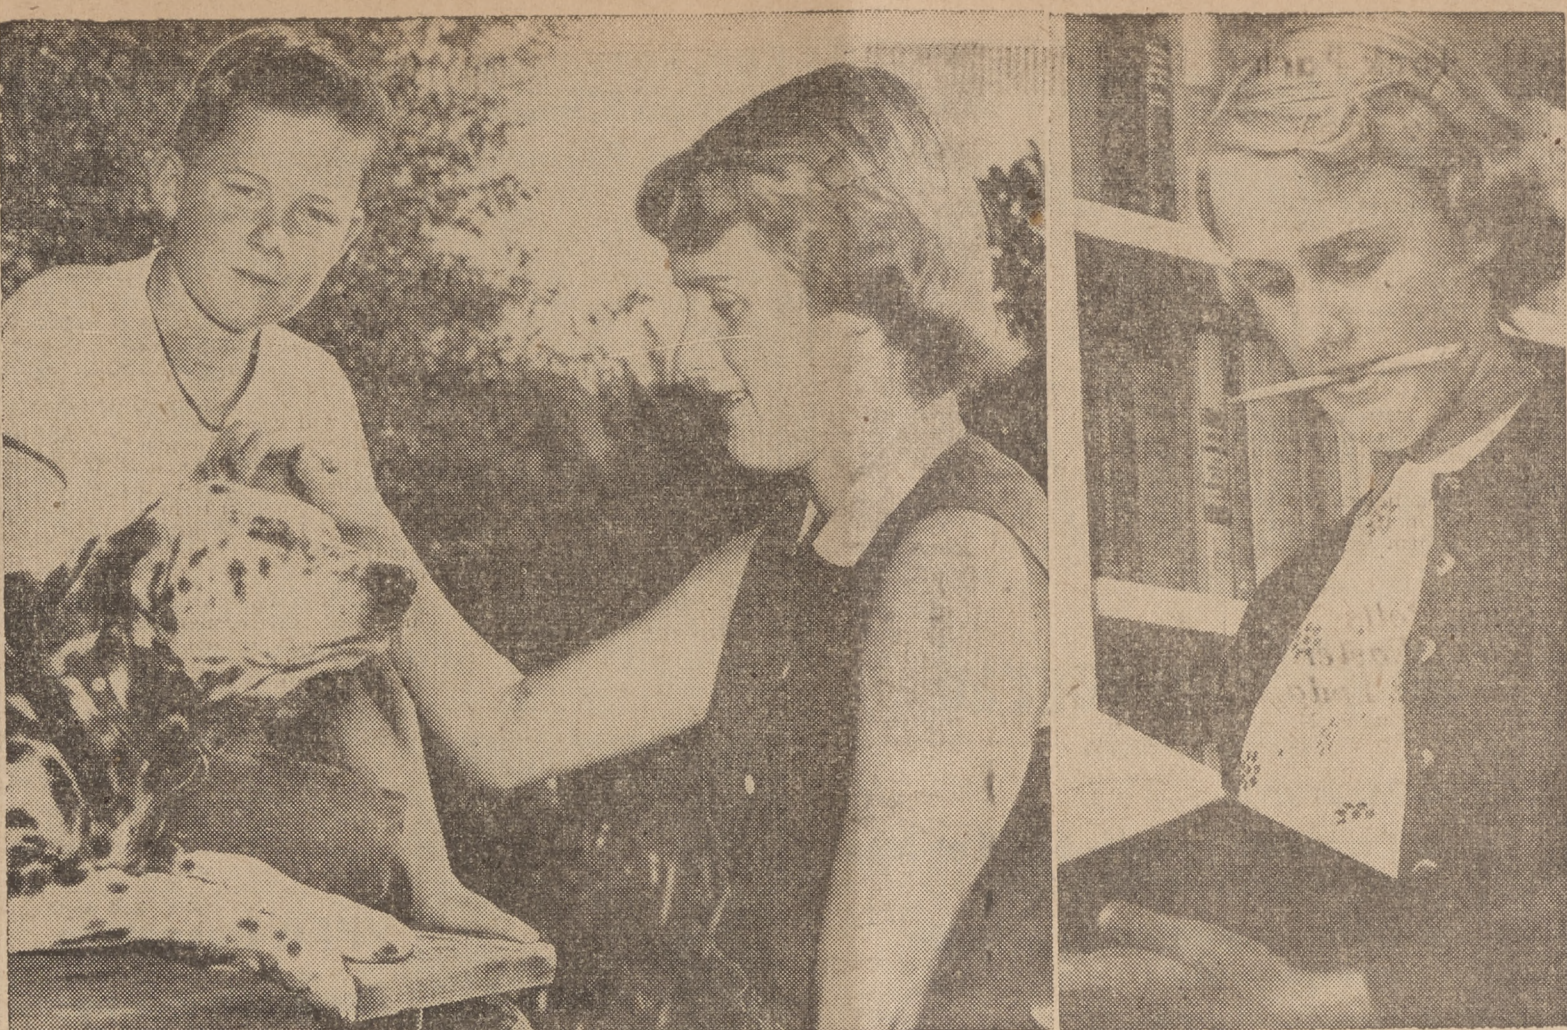

The Brownie (Brownie mother driving Brownies home) got in on it too, of course, and was entranced with the quaint and colorful furnishings and wallpaper in the Selbys' home that she walked through the living room with her head on backwards and darn near slipped and landed on her charges, thereby almost reducing the size of Brownie Troop 86 by five members.

The young ones were Mademoiselles Nancy Richards, Kathy Baker, Judy Murphy, Deborah Smith and Sylvia Bolman.

AND AS A PARTING SHOT ABOUT THE BLOOD BANK: Do you remember the poem about Abou Ben Adam and "the angel writing in the book of gold about those whom love of life had blessed and lo — Ben Adam's name led all the rest?"

Well, we love life too, and assuming that the boys in Korea have the same attitude, we are going to give them a little — a gift which curiously enough won't lessen our resources in the slightest — so we will meet you at the church on Monday, May 5.

That is all.

OLYMPIC TRYOUTS are the next big event on the agenda of Barbara Stark, 14-year-old Acalanes freshman who recently won the senior women's national title in the 200-yard backstroke and set a new record in doing so — 2:27.5. But the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Stark of 555 Manzanita Drive, Orinda, finds time, as in picture at left, to play at home with her eight-year-old brother, Dickie, and the family's Dalmatian dog, Duke. Also, as at right, she keeps up with her studying so as to get good grades at Acalanes. Tribune Photos

Bradley Deer Hunts — If He Finds Time

Don Bradley likes to go deer hunting if he can find time during his busy store hours at Bradley's Market.

The store, which opened February 14 at its new Brookwood Road address, is open weekdays from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. and on Sundays from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Bradley's Market was located on the highway at the Crossroads, when they moved the store, stocked with a complete line of produce and groceries to its present address. It also has a meat department, which Bradley leases to Walter Orelli and Jim Peterson.

County Issues First Television License to Gentry

Additional television service is to be available in a few weeks for some parts of this area, following the issuing of the first license ever granted in Contra Costa County.

The Board of Supervisors last week issued the license to Television Transmission, Inc., of Walnut Creek. William Gentry is president.

It is effective in the Alamo, Lafayette, Concord, Walnut Creek and Orinda areas.

Gentry said that within three months service will be available to the entire area, and for parts of it, service will be offered within a few weeks.

Gentry had previously obtained a contract with the Joint Poles Association, permitting him to use telephone poles for the cables required in the transmission system he proposes to install.

The board unanimously approved an ordinance permitting the system but it does not give Gentry and his firm exclusive rights in the named territory. The county can also terminate the ordinance on 30 days' notice and requires the firm to pay the county two per cent of gross receipts from service to customers.

A $10,000 bond is required to be posted by Gentry, and he must maintain insurance policies for public liability, among other things.

Orinda Library Sets New Record

An all-time high in number of books borrowed from Orinda Branch Library is recorded in the monthly report submitted by Mrs. Josephine Dawson, in charge of the local library, to Contra Costa County Library headquarters in Martinez.

A total of 1506 books and magazines, more than during any previous month in the branch's history, circulated in March.

This was 22 per cent more than in March, 1951.

Of this number, 689 books were taken for home use by adults and 792 by children.

Science fiction, whose fans are outnumbering yesterday's western and mystery addicts, is well represented in Orinda Library's latest monthly delivery of 75 books from county library headquarters.

"Pebble in the Sky," by Isaac Asimov, "Best of Science Fiction," edited by Groff Conklin, "Adventures in Time and Space," edited by Raymond Healy, and "World of A," by Alfred Van Vogt are other space thrillers.

What Will Your Garden Be This Year? Plans Vary, Complicated by Earwigs

By IANN HASTINGS

Central Contra Costa County's early-spring rain slowed up gardening work and plans this year, according to residents who were queried as to what they are planting in their gardens this year.

A prominent complaint mentioned was the garden pest, the earwig.

Mrs. William E. Elliott of 16 El Rincon Lane, Orinda, just back from a vacation, said she hadn't thought what she would put in her garden. "I put in tulips last fall. We have primroses. We will definitely have a vegetable garden this year. We have one every year. I'll plant butter lettuce, tomatoes — we have those every year — and chard."

Mrs. Steers, who lives with her son, F. M. Steers of Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, said: "Unfortunately, I am not able to garden but I have been pulling weeds. I am the only one in the family who likes to garden."

The Charles A. Stevens' of 1032 Juanita Drive, Walnut Creek, goes in for gardening in a big way. They have been putting in a lawn in the back of their home and a lot of shrubbery.

"WE HAVE STOCK, snapdragons, gladiolus, zinnias — the irises are coming along and we have lots of roses, about 30 or 40 bushes," Mrs. Stevens commented.

"I go in extensively for gardening. The tulips are just coming out. The hyacinths are just about gone. My husband always puts in a vegetable garden — radishes, lettuce, beets, carrots, chard — just about everything!"

"We put in a bit of everything — virvinia, as I am planting a herb garden. I want to plant them around an old wheel as soon as I find one. I have a cactus garden, one of my hobbies. My husband is building a light house for his tuberosus begonias and he has dahlias,

"Mrs. John W. McFarland of 59 Via Hermosa, Orinda, said they had been digging up, pruning shrubbery and clearing out.

The Edwin H. Burrs of 1144 Brown Avenue, Lafayette, will have carrots, radishes and zucchini in their vegetable garden.

"WE HAVE EARWIGS so bad we can't plant anything that they will eat up. About the only flowers we will have are snapdragons and of course, roses," Mrs. Burr said.

Mrs. M. L. Rucker of Crest Avenue, Walnut Creek, said: "We're not planting much this year. It has been much too wet. About all we have in our vegetable garden is chard. The earwigs are very bad in this vicinity and seem to eat everything up."

The McKie W. Roths of Glenside Drive, Lafayette, are putting in many trees. "We put in sycamores — and the usual thing — stock and violas. The daffodils and tulips are already in."

Mrs. Leland C. Christensen of 49 Monroe Avenue, Lafayette, said: "We take a lot of vacations so we are not planting too much. What we have are mostly perennials. We have planted some Sweet Williams and have replaced some rose bushes."

O. E. SCHIRMER of 3474 Monroe Avenue, Lafayette, is a devoted gardener. Mrs. Schirmer remarked that her husband had not put in the bedding plants yet. "I don't know exactly what he intends to put in. I love to pick them but I don't pay much attention to what is being put in."

Mrs. Charles Lohse of 54 Mara Loma Road, Orinda, remarked that Mr. Lohse is the gardener in the family. "We believe in perennials," she said. "We have columbine, primroses, tulips, many varieties of geraniums, and the camellias are in full bloom. They are beautiful! The azaleas aren't quite out yet, nor are the irises."

Mrs. W. D. Eastwood of 1841 Sunnyside Avenue, Walnut Creek, said that they hadn't done much this year. "Our garden is pretty well established, and about all it needs is a good cleaning up," she remarked.

Receiving House Plant Gifts? These Pointers Will Help You Care for Them

By BERT WRIGHT

This month many folks are receiving house plants as gifts. In some cases they will be well acquainted with the best methods of caring for them because they are already indoor gardeners.

On the other hand, it may be a new experience for some. It is for the latter that the following information is intended.

Generally, there are six factors to be considered for best success with house plants. They are: light, temperature, humidity, watering, insects and feeding.

WITH THESE FACTORS in mind, suppose we discuss briefly the important points in the care of the more popular gift plants.

To begin with, you can use the same methods of pest control and feeding with many of them. By dusting every week or so, it is possible to keep many plant pests from getting started.

For feeding, complete plant food in tablet form has been used by many gardeners with great success. Certainly there is no more convenient way to see that your house plants get the vital nutrients they need from soil to be healthy and full-blooming.

PLANTS SHOULD BE fed at the rate of 2 tablets to a six-inch pot with complete food tablets. For plants in 10-inch pots use four tablets, and vary the number used proportionately for plants in larger or smaller pots.

Place the tablets along the edge of the pot in all cases.

Rev. Berven to Talk on 'Christ, Savior, Example'

"Jesus Christ, Our Savior and Example" will be the sermon topic at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette Sunday morning. Identical services are held at 8 and 10:45 a.m., with the Sunday School hour beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Commenting on his sermon, Pastor Luther Berven asks: "If Jesus Christ is only our example, what happens when we fail to follow Him perfectly? The Bible clearly states that whoever breaks the law in one point is guilty of all. But Jesus Christ is more than just our example. He is our Savior, God's Son, who on the Cross paid for the sins of the world."

Midweek Bible classes are being held each Wednesday at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. Topic is "Great Chapters of the New Testament." Pastor Berven is the instructor.

Let's Go to Mexico with the H. R. LaFonds!

By IANN HASTINGS

If you are thinking of motoring to Mexico, the H. R. LaFonds of 8 Fern Way, Orinda, can tell you just what to expect and what you should take with you. They returned March 1 from their fourth trip to the southern land. Mrs. LaFonds' mother, Mrs. Kathryn Petersen, and her niece, Lyn Anderson of 18 Monte Veda, accompanied them on their last excursion.

LaFonds heads the 'H. R. LaFonds Used Cars on Broadway in Oakland and is the author of a book, "How, When and Where to Tour Mexico." The book, with many pictures, describes the temperatures of different localities in Mexico and just what clothes you'll need.

If you read the book, you'll know what a motoring tourist should look for, where to go, the condition of the roads and even where you can find parts for your car in case of a breakdown. The author recommends taking along some hydraulic fluid. You'll know where to stay and all about the delicious Mexican food and where to find it. Mrs. LaFonds said that any good hotel or motel has bottled water that is safe to drink. There are also places to stop and get drinkable water to replenish your supply. SHE ADDED, "The food is very good. They serve five courses and one eats too much." The Orinda woman spoke of a luscious Mexican dessert, "Flan," a custard with a burnt sugar topping.

Quenched as to why we hear so many complaints from former tourists that they had become sick while in Mexico, blaming the food and water, Mrs. LaFonds replied:

"I believe it is usually the tourists' fault. They don't take it easy in high altitudes and eat too much. They become overheated and drink too much ice water. Many just don't let themselves become acclimated."

With advice to the tourist, she said he should watch what restaurant to choose, but if he desires, adventure into an out-of-the-way place if it looks clean. At all of the recommended hotels, (and she can recommend them) the food is expertly prepared and well served.

So now that we are reassured about the food and water and know how to take care of our stomachs, let's go to Mexico with the LaFonds!

THEY COVERED about 6000 miles from Orinda through Mexico on their last trip and tell us minimum time to enjoy this motor trip is three weeks.

We'll take the route through Laredo, Texas, traveling about 1700 to 1800 miles before arriving at Laredo. Through Laredo is the prettier way, though you can take the El Paso route. It is a little faster but when you leave El Paso, you travel over about 1000 miles of plains.

From Laredo we go to Victoria, Mexico, and just outside Victoria, travel through orange and tangerine groves. Down to Guadalajara, a large city, and if we need parts for our car, we can get them here. Motoring on down to Acapulco, we hit the tropics.

In Acapulco we wear shorts during the day. In the evening for dinner, which begins at 8, a cotton dress is suitable any place we may go.

AT ACAPULCO the LaFonds boarded the fishing yacht Pescadora, and while Mrs. LaFonds took pictures, LaFonds snagged two sailfish, one nine feet, nine inches long, weighing 118 pounds, and another nine feet two inches long, weighing 100 pounds.

On this fishing trip they saw a whale that spouted nicely for them and schools of tuna. In the harbor there were many American tuna fishing boats.

From Acapulco we drive up the coast on a new highway to Mexico City, which is as good as the highway from Orinda to Lake Tahoe. There is breath-taking scenic beauty along this route and we want to take pictures at every turn.

Just outside Acapulco we pass through jungles and see coconut trees and mangoes.

AT TAXCO we watch the naive silversmiths, famous for their work. Driving through Cuernavaca, we arrive at beautiful Mexico City. The city's climate is much like that of San Francisco, and a stole, coat or a suit, is comfortable — very different from Acapulco.

In Mexico, the LaFonds said, you can get along very well without knowing any Spanish, but it helps to know phrases such as "Where's the hotel? What is it? How much is it?" and to be able to speak the numbers helps in the exchange of money, but one can write down the numbers and the exchange can be made. In the small towns you may not find an English-speaking Mexican but in the large cities, hotels and stores, there is always at least one Mexican who can translate English. If you speak in "factured Spanish" the natives never laugh at you, and they are very friendly, lovable people... so let's go to Mexico!

Walnut Creek Softball League Will Open June 2; Six Teams to Play

The Walnut Creek Softball League has six entries for league play, which opens on June 2. The month of May will be spent by managers in lining up prospective players and getting their squads in condition for the approaching league tilts.

Most of the team names are familiar to softball fans who have followed the play over the years, but as usual there are several newcomers on the scene.

The old-timers are led by Tiny's Hut, an entry since the league's inception. Walnut Creek Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The newcomers are Sears, Roebuck and the Lafayette Super Saver nines.

IT IS TOO EARLY to pick the teams, as team rosters haven't been filed as yet, but on the basis of past record and known personnel, the teams to beat are Tiny's Hut, Walnut Creek Merchants and V.F.W.

Tiny's has copped the pennant more times than the other clubs wish to remember. The Walnut Creek Merchants were a top nine last season and rumor has it that they have bolstered their lineup.

V.F.W. is rated as a dark horse, with Manager Ray Robb having corralled a formidable outfit that will have to be considered as a top runner.

Exhibition play is slated to start next week with all teams getting games against as yet unnamed opponents. All games are set for the Walnut Creek City Park.

The schedule:

MONDAY—V.F.W., 7 p.m.; Sears, Roebuck, 9 p.m.

TUESDAY—W. C. Legion, 7 p.m.; W. C. Girls, 9 p.m.

Don Track Team Flattens Diablo

The Acalanes Varsity track team, competing against Diablo, gave indications of things to come last Friday afternoon when they swept the opening event, with Gary Coad, Doug Cooper and Bill Powers finishing the high hurdles in that order.

The meet was held at the Mt. Diablo oval in Concord, and good weather found the Dons in fine fettle as they trounced Diablo 73½ to 39½. They were 1-2-3 in the low hurdles and shot put as well as the high hurdles and copped eight first places to Diablo's five.

One of the major upsets of the meet occurred when the Dons relay quartet, consisting of Eric Murray, Ed Greub, Bill Smith and Gary Coad, ran 1:34.6 to win by a comfortable margin over the highly rated Concord aggregation.

ANOTHER HIGHLIGHT of the meet, from the Dons' viewpoint, was a 50-foot, 8-inch heave of the iron ball by Eric Murray, the county's best to date.

Martinez Relays Showed Advantages of Daytime Contest, Swift Baton-Passing

By ERWIN MATTSON

THE MARTINEZ RELAYS held at Martinez last Saturday afternoon proved to be much more successful as a daytime affair than when it was held after sundown, as in past years.

A warm, pleasant day proved to be an advantage to both spectators and participants. Several records were broken, with the Acalanes Dons doing some of the breaking, and a part of it can be laid to a shining sun which loosened muscles and resulted in top performances.

One of the fundamentals which coaches of track often overlook is practice in passing the baton, perfection of which is essential to top performance.

If relay teams are close, the baton pass determines the winner. The Dons have come home out in front in the relay at Alhambra and at Diablo in the past week due to good work in transferring the baton from one runner to another.

Diablo swept the 100 and won first and third in the 220-yard dash, yet lost the relay, which is essentially a sprint event.

Reason for the Don win was some excellent baton passing, along with a supreme effort on the part of the runners, which proved too big a combination for Diablo to overcome.

CLOSENESS OF THE Contra Costa Baseball League was shown the past week when Diablo dropped a 7-6 decision to John Swett of Crockett, Pittsburg edged Antioch 5-4 and the Dons were forced to come from behind to eke out a 7-6 win over Albany.

The Crockett- Diablo and Pittsburg-Antioch games were both of the extra-inning variety, with the scores all tied up at the end of the regulation seven innings and with the winners in each instance pushing across the winning run in their half of the 8th.

The Dons were trailing by a 3-0 count after the fourth batter up for Albany in the opening inning and had to come back the hard way to register the win. The majority of games have been settled by two runs or less and it looks like that's the way it will be most of the season.

THE ACALANES TENNIS TEAM has been a little more than successful in the race for county honors, having won every match in county play.

To date they have crossed racquets with Antioch, Alhambra and Albany, in that order, and each opponent in turn has gone down by a 7-0 match score.

It is a little too much to hope that the Dons can continue to dominate by such scores but it does appear that they are well on their way to another county title.

COACH LEE ARTH of the swimmers has been trying to line up now nationally famous Barbara Stark and Sally Pedder to swim an exhibition when the swimmers meet up with George Washington High of San Francisco in the local pool next Tuesday.

Barbara is the Acalanes freshman who won the 220 backstroke at Daytona Beach, Florida, and with it went the National Women's title as well as a new record of 2:27.5 for the event.

Sally Pedder is also a freshman at Acalanes and a teammate of Barbara's.

Both girls swim under the auspices of the Berkeley Women's City Club.

Sally's times have been close to Barbara's, and in view of Barbara's triumph in the Nationals it is hoped that both girls will go to the Olympic trials to be held this summer.

It is to be hoped that Coach Arth can get both to show their stuff in the Acalanes pool as students. Spectators would like to see the two in action.

Dons Place 2nd In Relays, Set Shot Put Record

The Acalanes Dons ended up in second place in the Alhambra Relays at Martinez last Saturday afternoon.

Four Class A and two Class B records went by the wayside, with the Dons setting two but only getting credit for one.

The events were all of the relay type, with four in each event, whether field or track.

Schools were divided into A and B classifications based on school population. The Dons were in the top bracket, and even then came within a few points of the top spot when they registered 24½ points to Richmond's 28, followed by Palo Alto with 18, Lowell 17, Washington 15, Piedmont 12, Diablo 8, St. Ignace 6, Salinas 2 and Lincoln 1½.

The Dons' record was set in the shotput, when Eric Murray, Ray Williamson, Art Siler and Ed Greub heaved the iron pellet for a grand total of 190 feet, 2½ inches.

The Dons also broke the record in the high jump, only to have Palo Alto jump even higher to copped first and forcing the Dons to end up with second. The Don jumpers hit their best of the season with Bill Powers and Bruce Morgan clearing 6 feet, 6 inches and 6 feet, 5 inches, 10 inches and Pat Gates making 5 feet, 5 inches.

The Dons garnered additional points when they took second in the 480-yard high hurdle event, third in the low hurdle over the same distance, second in the two-mile relay, third in the 880 event and third in the pole vaulting event.

7 to 5 Baseball Win by Acalanes Over Cougar Nine

The Acalanes Dons won last Friday, 7-5, in their baseball game with Albany High's Cougars at the Acalanes diamond but in doing so had to come from behind as Albany racked up three runs in the opening inning.

With one away, Ed Bertotti singled and went to second when Chuck Bob Westlund walked Kent McDonald, Stan Ceblull, the league's leading hitter, was next at plate, and he was up to par as he cracked the first pitch into the left field ditch 380 feet way, scoring the two runs ahead of him and crossing home plate standing up for number 3.

The Dons had the bases loaded in the second frame with one out, but failed to score when Bob Garrett struck out and Bob Dwight grounded out, second to first, to retire the side.

IN THE THIRD the Dons dented the home plate twice when Jerry Macauley, Dick Fey and Dick Fey was on with a fielder's choice, with both rambling home on Bob Borghesani's booming single to deep right field.

In the fourth frame, Macauley was on with a fielder's choice, and Dale Isaacs was safe when Ceblull muffed a hit ball. Macauley and Isaacs scored when Pitcher Dorsey walked three in a row and Shortstop Bertotti committed an error on a hit ball.

In the fifth, the Dons registered three runs on three hits, with John Champlin and Jerry Macauley singling and scoring on Dick Fey's double to left field, while Richard Ting walked and waltzed home earlier in the inning on Macauley's single.

THAT GAVE the Dons seven runs, which proved enough to win as Albany could garner but one run in the third and one in the seventh.

Bob Westlund started on the mound for the Dons and went the first four frames, yielding four runs on five hits, with Bob Borghesani pitching the last three frames and giving up one run and four safeties.

ALBANY COMMITTED six errors to one for the Dons, while Pitcher Dorsey limited the Don stickers to five blows in the hit column.

The win marked number 4 for the Dons in league play and kept them in the undefeated class with a one-game bulge over Diablo which rests in the number 2 spot.

Elsewhere in the league, last Friday's games found Pittsburg edging Antioch 5-4 in an extra inning game, while Diablo's apocryphal was upset by John Swett of Crockett, 7-6, in another extra-inning game.

Dons Facing Important Contests Next Week

Next week is an important one for the Acalanes Dons on the sports calendar.

One of the highlights of the week is the swimming meet with George Washington High in the Acalanes pool on Tuesday. The Washington team is a strong aggregation, having defeated El Cerrito handily last week.

A specialty of the day will be an exhibition by three Acalanes girls at 4 p.m.

BARBARA STARK, who recently won the national women's backstroke title, will perform, as will two other top-rated young swimmers, Sally Pedder and Sally Freedman.

The girls will swim several exhibition events and will give local swim fans a chance to see them in action.

BASEBALL FINDS the varsity meeting John Swett of Crockett on the local diamond next Tuesday at 4 p.m. The game will mark the end of the first round of league play and will be all-important to the Dons, who hold a precarious one-game lead in the race at this writing.

The Junior Varsity nine travels to Pittsburg on the same afternoon and is the favorite, as it has become a well-balanced outfit as the season has progressed.

TRACK HAS a busy and significant week, with the county trials taking place at Acalanes next Thursday at 3:30 and the finals at Diablo on Saturday, May 3.

The Dons are definite favorites to cop the county title in the Varsity division, and with come-through performances could pull an upset and win the Bee title.

TENNIS MEETS Crockett at Acalanes on Tuesday at 4 p.m. The Dons are favorites to continue their winning ways, having waded through all opposition with comparative ease to date.

They are well established as heavy favorites to capture the pennant.

GOLF HITS the road next Friday, May 2, and matches strokes with the Pittsburg Pirates. Starting time is 2:30 p.m.

Such players as Dave Cranston and Mike Elvidge make the Dons tough to beat, and it looks like a win for the Blue and White.

George Curnley Killed by Car Near Crossroads

George Edward Curnley, 51, who with his wife owned the Orinda Roost restaurant, was instantly killed Tuesday night when struck by a car while he was crossing Mt. Diablo Boulevard about 240 feet west of the Crossroads.

Driver of the west-bound car, according to the California Highway Patrol, was Corporal Leon John Noy, 22, of the U. S. Air Force at Camp Stoneman, where he was in Process Squadron 2353, Flight 1.

CURNLEY LEFT his restaurant about 8:44 p. m. and started to cross to the north side of the highway. Noy told highway patrolmen that as he approached the Crossroads, the signal light changed from red to green, so he proceeded through the intersection. He and his two passengers said they did not see Curnley until it was too late to stop.

The impact hurled Curnley 150 ft. The body was taken to the Orinda Sons' mortuary in Walnut Creek, at whose Little Chapel of the Flowers funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. today, with Rev. Jenke of Grace Lutheran Church of El Cerrito officiating. Burial will follow at Sunset View Cemetery, Berkeley.

Curnley is survived by his widow, Irene, with whom he lived at 4 Mira Monte Drive.

A NATIVE of Maryland, Curnley and his wife owned and operated the Orinda Roost the past three years. He was a member of the Orinda Lions Club, the Orinda Rangers and the Loyal Order of Moose, Lodge 324 of Oakland.

He owned a ranch in Lake County. At his restaurant are a number of equestrian cups won by the Contra Costa Rangers.

DEFENSE INDUSTRY, producing important scientific devices for both the government and private firms — that's Pedersen Electronics, right here in Lafayette. Shown at work in the plant are Svend Pedersen (seated), the owner, and Ed Borglin, machinist.

Pedersen Electronics, Defense Plant Here, Produces Important Instruments

Lafayette can boast of a defense industry. A flourishing, scientific, vital business which produces items of serious and important nature daily.

Pedersen Electronics, a designing and manufacturing concern which has already produced many electronic devices used by the government and by private industry in atomic research and aeronautics, is located in an unpretentious building just off Mt. Diablo Boulevard behind the Lescure Building.

The owner, Svend Pedersen, an electronic engineer, works steadily in his plant producing many devices of intricacy and precision, without a long assembly line or a crowd of workers wearing their pictures on badges, but producing many instruments of vital importance to the welfare of the country.

PEDERSEN ELECTRONICS was established in Lafayette about four years ago and has been growing steadily ever since. At present the plant includes a machine shop with sheet metal facilities, a workshop with a special department for silk screen work, and a paint room which includes an oven.

This oven insures the correct finish on the instruments produced in the Pedersen workshops. The building also holds a laboratory where Pedersen does his own special work and designing.

Among the instruments finished within the past months by the local concern and placed on the market is a development project of the Bureau of Ships. It is a device called "a weight rate of flow machine" which required some 800 work-hours to produce at a cost of $4000. This instrument will prove invaluable in many propulsion scientific fields. The machine's accuracy exceeds that of present methods of controlling liquid flow.

Acalanes 'Open House' Program On Monday Night

"The communities served by Acalanes High School will have a chance to see first hand and evaluate for themselves the work being done at Acalanes," Principal Stanley Walgren declared in reminding the general public of the high school's invitation to all to attend Acalanes "Open House" next Monday evening.

"Open House" program is part of the Acalanes observance of Public Schools Week. The program will feature the regular monthly Parents Club meeting, which has been rescheduled to fit in the "Open House" program.

Following the parents' meeting in the Don gym to discuss club business and elect new officers for the next school year, those attending will view the color, sound 16mm movie "The Acalanes Story," recently filmed at Acalanes.

According to Lily Lahti, dean of girls, Acalanes observance of Public Schools Week. The program will feature the regular monthly Parents Club meeting, which has been rescheduled to fit in the "Open House" program.

The entire faculty and Acalanes administrative staff, assisted by students in their charge, will play hosts.

"The public owes it to itself and the important cornerstone of democracy, the American education movement, to keep abreast of the work being done with youngsters in the public schools," Principal Walgren commented. "We hope the residents of the Acalanes communities will avail themselves of our invitation to view the education program of their own high school."

Contractors Get Policy Preview

Over 100 members and guests of the general Contractors' Association of Contra Costa County joined Tuesday night at Planters Dock in Lafayette with governmental officials to obtain a "preview" of the association's "Home Owners Service Policy" and a booklet, "Important Information About the Care of Your New Home."

The material, which was prepared by the Public Relations Committee of the association, composed of Chairman Dan C. Peacock Jr., Sherman L. Balch and Harold E. Parker, contains data on the foundation, cement walks, driveways, steps, windows, plumbing, heating, floors, tiling, roofing, electricity, and so on, and explains to the new home purchases what may be expected from each of these items.

Dennis Carey, district supervisor of the State Contractors License Board, addressed the association on the inception and operation of the board, and announced the retirement of Melvin Levey after 21 years of service in the department. Levey was present and was given an ovation by the membership.

The labor problem in the bay area, as well as threat of further difficulties throughout Northern California, was discussed.

until 4 p. m. and maps will be furnished at the market at the beginning of the tour. Michael Czaja, chairman of the exhibition committee of Outdoor Art Shows, Inc., which is sponsoring both the Artists Market and the May Day House Tour, will be host at the Artists Market, and an architectural exhibit arranged by Carl Kolbeck will be the first exhibit at the market.

HOUSE TOUR of several Lafayette area homes will be conducted next Thursday by Outdoor Art Shows, Inc., to raise funds for prizes which will be awarded at the annual art exhibit in September. This picture shows a group posing at "the house that Jack built" — the lovely residence and grounds of Jack Schneider on Springhill Road, one of the spots to be included in the tour. ## Post Ride Signs; Bus Strike Goes On; Commuters 'Interested' in Train-Talk

"Give a Ride" signs have appeared at prominent loading spots along the main highway between Concord and Orinda, having been erected this past week by the Contra Costa Commuters Association. The association urgently requests the cooperation of everyone driving along the highway to assist persons standing next to these signs by offering them a ride.

As the Greyhound strike enters its 55th day, there seems little likelihood of an early settlement. Recent meetings in San Francisco between the drivers and the company have dealt mainly with grievances arising out of the old contract. No discussions on the terms of a new contract to end the present strike have been scheduled this past week.

WHEN ASKED ABOUT recent publicity regarding the possibility of restoring Sacramento Shortline service in Contra Costa County, Del Armstrong, publicity chairman of the Commuters Association, said: "This subject comes up with understandable regularity. We last went into the matter very thoroughly several months ago. One of our members, Dudley Thickens of Walnut Creek, whose hobby is railroading, made a complete survey of the shortline situation. He came up with essentially the same report as was recently released to the press by President R. T. Kearney of the Sacramento Northern Railroad, pointing out the many obstacles to such a project."

"HOWEVER, WE'RE interested in anything which will improve transportation in this area. The very fact that so many persons have shown an interest in the problem, even to the extent of discussing the possibility of monorail service, indicates a healthy thing."

"We have proved that we can continue this ride pool business indefinitely, if forced to do so. However, we think that our people are entitled to regular bus transportation if they want it. The disputants have had almost two months in which to work out their differences. If some sign of a settlement isn't in sight early in May, we may well consider some different course of action."

Quicker further about reports that Greyhound has considered petitioning for the abandonment of commuter service in this county. Armstrong said, "Quite the contrary. In a meeting held earlier this month between members of our association and the regional manager of Greyhound Lines, every hope was held out for even improved commuter service once this strike is settled. We have very definitely had no indication from Greyhound that it wishes to abandon commuter service in this area."

HERE ARE the locations where the Commuters Association's "Give a Ride" signs may be found:

Concord—Just south of the city limits on the curve, near the Concord Pet Hospital.

Monument—Near the Contra Costa Plumbing Supply Company.

Walnut Creek—Downtown, between the library and Lucas Motors, immediately across the street from the Greyhound depot.

Walnut Creek—Near the intersection of Oakland Boulevard and the main highway, adjacent to the Burma Road restaurant.

Acalanes Junction.

Lafayette—At the traffic signal at Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Moraga Road.

Orinda—Crossroads, at the bus shelter.

Realtors Mart Told of Schools

Sheldon Rankin, superintendent of the Walnut Creek school district, told members of the Contra Costa Realtors Mart how that body could assist in helping the district have adequate schools at a meeting held in Lafayette Monday.

Breakfast Chairman William Riggs reported that at the next meeting Monday the group will hear a FIA sub-division appraiser who will speak on "Appraisals for Mortgage Insurance Purposes." The Diablo Choral group will present a short concert.

Men's Garden Club Meeting Monday

The Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club will hold its next meeting Monday evening at 6:30 at Planters Dock in Lafayette.

Supervisors Urge Support of Bonds

Because "it can mean the saving of lives as well as the service factor we must employ in our every day lives," Supervisors Jack Cummings and Ray Taylor this week urged Second and Third Supervisorial District citizens to support the $10,250,000 highway bond issue on the June 3 ballot.

At the same time, the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association endorsed "without qualification" the bond issue to finance major improvements to the county road system.

"There's a simple run-down on the whole county highway situation," Cummings and Taylor stated. "Everyone knows the highways are required. We all know they must be improved and why they must be improved."

"The contemplated improvement program is essential. It spreads benefit to every part of the county. Maintenance and construction costs in three years have climbed from 23 cents on the tax rate in 1949-50, to 43 cents last year and 62 cents this year. It demonstrates that something must be done — and now."

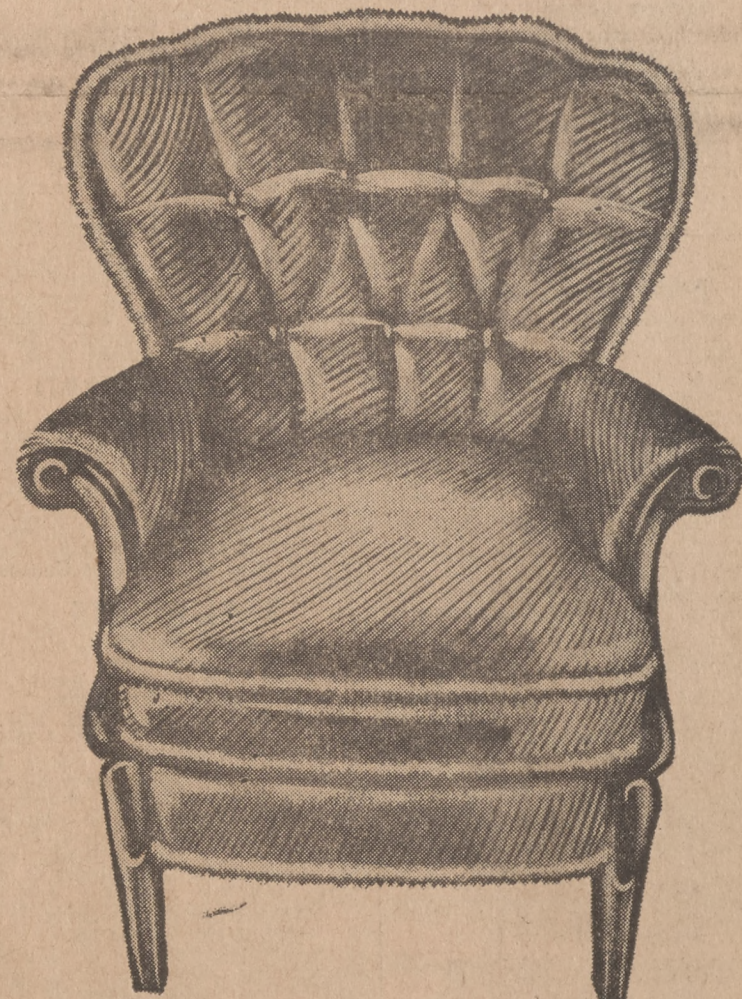

"It's like an old car. You can replace the motor but the transmission is bad and the differential is about to go out."

"We have sub-standard roads, we have hazards and we have congestion. Delay means they get worse — with heavier tolls."

"We're at the state where we must move. There are two methods of accomplishing what must be done. One is an easy 25-year bond plan which makes $10,250,000 available almost immediately to go to work on a three or four years program. The other is a heavy direct tax of from 75 cents to $1 each year for five or six years."

"We believe these bonds can be voted, with an initial year's tax of 20 cents, and that maintenance costs in addition can be kept at a level that will get a good job done on roads other than the 78 miles of bond highways and at a cost no more than the present 62 cents in road tax funds."

Out of the Dog House

Many Top Performers at Dog Obedience Trial; Main Honors to Little Rascal

ONCE AGAIN DOG FANCIERS gathered at the Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club's annual obedience trial, held last Sunday at Walnut Creek City Park, to show their dogs or to watch, and, incidentally, to get their first sunburn of the season.

Some excellent performances were turned in at the day-long event. Dr. E. N. Gregg, armed off with top honors, an armband of trophies and a perfect score of 200 in the most advanced class, Utility.

There's even more honor to this than meets the eye. It is the first perfect score that Judge James Frey has handed out, and he is by way of being a veteran on the obedience circuit.

The winning dog was Pameron's Little Rascal, C.D.X., one of three Shelties entered by Dr. Gregg.

AMONG LOCAL ENTRIES. Frank Awalt's Springer Spaniel, Alameda Prince, C.D.X., was top scoring local sporting dog, and placed fifth in Open B, in competition with 23 other dogs, with the high score of 193½. Prince lost out in a runoff for fourth. He just didn't realize that so much depended on sitting down quickly.

Captain Roanoke's Falconer, C.D.X., owned by Mr. and Mrs. Dry Beers (fantastic but authentic), was the superior sinner. The breeders of Cappy were the Glen Cunningham of Walnut Creek, raisers of English Cocker. Cappy also took the high scoring English Cocker trophy.

Earning legs on a C.D. degree, with qualifying scores in Novice A were Shur Shot's Hi Caliber, Golden Retriever, owned by Dr. and Mrs. George L. Kerrigan of Orinda. His Nibs Baron Von Willmar, German Shepherd owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snedeker, Lafayette, and Ch. Coon's Reflection of Norva, 12 year old English Cocker owned by Mr. and Mrs. Alva Wilkins, Walnut Creek.

First place in the large Novice A Class went to young Patricia Stratton, of Oakland, with her Springer Spaniel, Waiterock Major III, a son of Juanita Waite's Ch. Waiterock Strongbow.

$400 Raised for Don Scholarships At Cake-Pie Sale

The cake and pie sale held last Saturday in the three communities served by Acalanes High School, sponsored by the Acalanes Parents Club, netted $400 for the parent club senior scholarship fund.

Cakes and pies donated by parents were sold at Purity and Safeway markets in Walnut Creek; Super Saver and the Food Center in Lafayette and Sproule Reitz and Wright's Pharmacy in Orinda.

Cash donations were also made by parents who did not wish to contribute pastry. According to Mrs. Jack Janse, chairman of the sale, cash donations are still coming in and being accepted. Donations may be mailed to the Acalanes Parents Club, care of the high school.

Mrs. Janse was assisted by Mrs. William Wadman and Mrs. John Fry. "This year's $400 total tops all past annual cake and pie sale receipts. We wish to thank all those who worked on or contributed to this year's project," Mrs. Janse stated.

A formal report on the cake and pie sale will be made at the meeting of the Acalanes Parents Club Monday evening during the Acalanes 'Open House' program.

California Garden Show Starts Today

Opening in a blaze of floral magnificence, the 20th annual California Spring Garden show will begin its spectacular eight-day showing of the world's choicest blooms today at 8 a.m. in Oakland's Exposition building.

"Today's Gardens," the colorful Brazilian-Modern theme panorama, will be dominated by an Andean mountain scene. At its apex will be a rushing cascade plunging over cliffs covered with moss, orchids and brilliant anthuriums into a large stillwater pool heavily planted with exotic jungle blooms.

The following exhibitors from this area will take part:

Lafayette: Acalanes Gardens, Ernest Laffrenz; Home Gardeners, Mrs. C. P. Pond; Orchard Nursery, Jack Schneider.

Orinda: Alameda County Floral Society, F. O. Pearce; Montclair Women's Club, Mrs. T. F. Bradley; Orinda Garden Club, Mrs. W. H. Mordy.

Walnut Creek: Diablo Valley Girl Scouts, Troop 30, Mrs. Harry Akers.

'Probation After Death' Topic for Christian Science

"Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation."

The above verses from the Twenty-fourth Psalm will be read in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on Sunday, April 27. The subject of the sermon will be "Probation After Death."

Citations from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following correlative passage:

"We know that all will be changed in the twinkling of an eye, when the last trump shall sound; but this last call of wisdom cannot come till mortals have already yielded to each lesser call in the growth of Christian character."

Universal salvation rests on progression and probation, and is unattainable without them" (p. 291).

MORTIMER B. VEALE . . . in Superior Court race

FROM MILTIE

A friend of ours who got sick and tired of cleaning dog hairs off her couch tells us how she cured her pooch of selecting that spot for his siesta. She set three small mouse traps and put them in a row on the couch.

She didn't have to run her trap line. It wasn't five minutes before she heard a yelp and a snarl and Fido wanted to get out — right now!

Result: no damage to dog or couch and no more dog hairs to clean up — except from the rug. Small traps won't snap shut on the dog but their noise will scare him and make him suspicious of that spot in the future.

Capacity Crowd At 'Forest Prince'

A full house packed the Acalanes gym last Friday to see and hear the first Acalanes High School operetta, "The Forest Prince," co-starring student actor-singers Lois La Bonte and Gary Shallenberger.

Accompanied by the Acalanes Band and mixed chorus and the Don modern dance group, "The Forest Prince" featured a cast of more than 140 students, director and stage technicians.

Music Instructor Richard Hansen directed the program, assisted by Dance Instructor Millicent Ham-burger and Stage Director Betsy Pembroke.

"The Forest Prince" recounted the Cossack days of old, a thwarted love affair that ends happily in true stage tradition — all set to the music of Peter Tschaikowsky, famous Russian composer.

"The Forest Prince" followed by a few weeks a Senior play production of "Best Foot Forward," which was also acclaimed by local audiences.

Demos Endorse Meeting Changed

Due to interest in the Diablo

Democrats' endorsement meeting, the time and date has been changed to next Wednesday evening at 8 in the lecture room of the Mt. Diablo High School gym. Original meeting had been set for Tuesday.

"Senator Estes Kefauver, Incumbent State Senator George Miller Jr., congressional candidate Bob Condon and Harmon Welsh and Hal Mutnick, Assembly candidates, all have their supporters who are urging an endorsement from the Diablo Democrats," Ray Johnson, president, stated.

"As we are the only official, active, chartered Democratic club in Central Contra Costa County, it is felt our endorsements will pretty much determine how democrats in this area vote."

All Democratic voters interested in pressing for endorsements of their choices for these offices are urged to attend, although only paid-up members of the Diablo Democratic organization will be allowed to vote on the candidates.
